

Key takeaway message

1. Diabetes assessment and treatment as close to diagnosis as possible
2. Starting PERT can unmask diabetes
3. Optimising blood glucose levels, weight and physical activity can improve surgical outcomes and reduce complications
4. Monitor nutritional intake post-surgery
5. Monitor blood glucose across the treatment pathway
6. Importance of communication between teams through treatment